

Five Hausfeld Lawyers Recognised as Thought Leaders for Competition by Who's Who Legal

Related Lawyers: Nicola Boyle, Scott Campbell, Lianne Craig, Laurent Geelhand, Michael D. Hausfeld, Megan E. Jones, Brent W. Landau, Michael P. Lehmann, Anthony Maton, Anna Morfey, Dr. Alex Petrasincu, James J. Pizzirusso, Brian A. Ratner, Hilary K. Scherrer

Related Practice Areas: Antitrust / Competition, Competition Disputes

The inaugural edition of Who's Who Legal Thought Leaders - Competition 2019 recognises five Hausfeld lawyers on both sides of the Atlantic.

The publication identifies some 400 of the world's foremost competition lawyers and 90 economists in one single edition. The featured individuals received the biggest number of nominations from peers, corporate counsel and other market sources.

The following lawyers stand out 'not only for their expertise and experience advising on some of the world's most significant and cutting-edge matters, but also their ability to innovate and inspire':

- Michael Hausfeld, Chairman, Washington
- Anthony Maton, Managing Partner, London
- Laurent Geelhand, Managing Partner, Brussels
- Megan Jones, Partner, San Francisco
- Scott Campbell, Partner, London

Furthermore, with 12% of the total expert recommendations of competition lawyers focused on the plaintiff side worldwide related to 14 Hausfeld lawyers, Who's Who Legal marks our undisputed global expertise in this area. This number rockets to 22%, when considering the total numbers of thought leaders on the plaintiff side. The 15 experts - with Michael Hausfeld and Anthony Maton also highlighted as Global Leaders - are:

Europe

- Laurent Geelhand, Belgium
- Alex Petrasincu, Berlin, Germany
- Nicola Boyle, London, UK
- Scott Campbell, London, UK
- Lianne Craig, London, UK
- Anthony Maton, London, UK

- Anna Morfey, London, UK

USA

- Brent W Landau, Philadelphia
- Megan E Jones, San Francisco
- Michael P Lehmann, San Francisco
- Michael D Hausfeld, Washington, DC
- James J Pizzirusso, Washington, DC
- Brian A Ratner, Washington, DC
- Hilary K Scherrer, Washington, DC