

ABA's 2019 Global Private Litigation Conference – 17 June 2019, Berlin

Related Lawyers: Michael D. Hausfeld, Megan E. Jones, Christopher L. Lebsack, Michael P. Lehmann, Scott Martin, Anthony Maton, Andrew Bullion, Lucy Rigby, Kio Gwilliam, Dr. Alex Petrasincu, Dr. Ann-Christin Richter, Dr. Manuel Knebelsberger, Karl-Christoph von Steuben

Related Practice Areas: Competition Litigation

On 17 June 2019, professionals from around the world will gather at ABA's Global Private Litigation Conference in Berlin to gain understanding of the cutting-edge developments occurring in private antitrust redress. Scott Martin from our New York office co-chairs the conference.

Economists, litigators, government enforcers and corporate counsel make up some of the world-class panellists, and will give their perspectives on a variety of hot topics:

- Interchange fee/credit card litigation
- The latest developments in collective actions and claims aggregation and assignment
- Implementation of the damages directive
- The approach of in-house counsel to multi-jurisdictional claims
- The effects of settlement decisions on private enforcement
- Structuring "global" settlements
- Critical thinking about allocation questions
- Convergence issues across jurisdiction

Berlin partner, Dr. Ann-Christin Richter will join the afternoon panel to partake in a Case Study Role-Play on 'A Hypothetical Global Settlement' alongside lawyers from Oppenlander Rechtsanwälte, Gibson Dunn & Crutcher LLP, Stibbe and Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP.

Also attending the conference are our chairman, Michael Hausfeld, and other members of our global team:

- from London: Anthony Maton, managing partner; Andrew Bullion, partner; Lucy Rigby, senior associate and Kio Gwilliam, associate
- from Germany: Alex Petrasincu, partner; Karl-Christoph von Steuben, senior associate and Manuel Knebelsberger, senior associate

- from United States: Megan Jones, partner; Christopher Lebsack, partner and Michael Lehmann, partner.

For more information on the conference.