

Halli Spraggins

Experience

Halli focuses on complex litigation, antitrust enforcement, and class actions. She joins us from American University Washington College of Law where she spent several semesters interning at the Department of Justice Antitrust Division and participated in the Criminal Justice Clinic prosecuting misdemeanor offenses in Anne Arundel County. Halli was particularly drawn to Hausfeld because of its reputation as a leading global law firm known for creating innovative solutions for complex litigation issues.

Halli currently serves as the Liaison for the Young Lawyers' Division of the Committee to Support the Antitrust Laws.

ASSOCIATE

WASHINGTON, DC

+1 (202) 540-7200

hspraggins@hausfeld.com

PRACTICE AREAS

Antitrust / Competition

- In re Domestic Airline Travel Antitrust Litigation – A class action lawsuit alleging a conspiracy by United, American, Delta, and Southwest to artificially inflate domestic airline ticket prices by limiting capacity.

Deceptive Business Practices and Consumer Protection

EDUCATION

American University Washington College of Law, J.D., 2019

University of San Diego, M.A. International Relations, 2016

Pepperdine University, B.A., 2014

BAR ADMISSIONS

Not admitted to the D.C. Bar. Supervised by Principals of the Firm.

AFFILIATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

Senior Staffer, Administrative Law Review (2018-2019)

Student Attorney, American University Criminal Justice Clinic, prosecuting misdemeanor offenses in Anne Arundel County

