

WWL 2020 Competition Plaintiff Credits Hausfeld As Only Firm With 5 Thought Leaders

Related Lawyers: Michael D. Hausfeld, Anthony Maton, Nicola Boyle, Anna Morfey, Megan E. Jones

Related Practice Areas: Antitrust / Competition, Antitrust Counseling and Compliance, Competition Disputes, Competition Counseling and Compliance

The 2020 Who's Who Legal Thought Leaders, Competition edition, recognises five Hausfeld lawyers on both sides of the Atlantic as thought leaders acting for the plaintiff - out of a total of only 28 ranked lawyers worldwide. This makes Hausfeld the undisputed go to firm when it comes to expertise needed to bring competition actions. Only one law firm can rely on three and only four other firms include two ranked lawyers each.

The publication identifies some 400 of the world's foremost competition lawyers and 110 economists in one single edition.

Editor, Rupert Wilson, says: "Only those listed lawyers who obtained the highest number of nominations from peers, corporate counsel and other market sources were considered. [They] are among the very best in the world in their field, without exception."

The following lawyers stand out 'not only for their expertise and experience advising on some of the world's most significant and cutting-edge matters, but also their ability to innovate and inspire':

- Michael Hausfeld, Chairman, Washington
- Anthony Maton, Managing Partner, London
- Nicola Boyle, Partner, London
- Anna Morfey, Partner, London
- Megan Jones, Partner, San Francisco