We are very pleased to announce that for the 11th year in a row, The Legal 500 United States has ranked Hausfeld as a Tier 1 firm in its Antitrust - Civil Litigation/Class Actions: Plaintiff category. The publication describes Hausfeld as a firm that “fields an outstanding bench of dedicated antitrust practitioners led by the 'extremely polished' Scott Martin in New York and Bonny Sweeney in San Francisco.” The publication goes on to describe the firm as a “class leader in the field of plaintiff antitrust enforcement,” and highlights eight Hausfeld lawyers from both coasts, recognizing the overall strength and depth of the practice across the United States.

Writing about Hausfeld's track record and lawyers, The Legal 500 remarked that attorneys at the firm are “very smart, client focused, extremely knowledgeable and experienced, and totally dedicated.”

In other highlights, Washington DC-based Partner Melinda Coolidge and firm Vice Chair Brian Ratner were described by clients as “first class,” and “personable, knowledgeable and deliver results.” New York-based Partner and Co-Chair of the firm's Antitrust practice group, Scott Martin, is described as “a pleasure to work with,” and “an expert in the field.”
