

Michael Hausfeld and Bonny Sweeney Speak at Antitrust Law & Economics Institute for Judges

Related Lawyers: Michael D. Hausfeld, Bonny E. Sweeney

Related Practice Areas: Antitrust / Competition

(October 18-21, 2015) - Hausfeld Chairman, Michael Hausfeld and Hausfeld Partner, Bonny Sweeney were invited to speak at the Antitrust Law & Economics Institute for Judges in Washington, DC. Co-sponsors included the Federal Judicial Center, the ABA Section of Antitrust Law and George Mason University School of Law, Law & Economics Center.

Hausfeld Chairman, Michael Hausfeld, delivered a keynote address titled "The Certification Pendulum," to an audience of over thirty federal judges. Hausfeld San Francisco Partner, Bonny Sweeney, appeared as plaintiffs' counsel in a mock trial argument on the topic of the NCAA Litigation, which tasked a jury in examining antitrust issues raised by a college athletic association's restrictions on amateur player compensation and whether the anticompetitive effects of those restraints, if any, were offset by the association's procompetitive justification for the restraints.

For more information on the conference, please visit here.

About Hausfeld

Hausfeld is a leading global law firm with offices in Brussels, London, Philadelphia, San Francisco, New York, and Washington, DC. The firm has a broad range of complex litigation expertise, particularly in antitrust/competition, financial services, sports and entertainment, environmental, mass torts, consumer protection, and human rights matters, often with an international dimension. Hausfeld aims to achieve the best possible results for clients through its practical and commercial approach, avoiding litigation where feasible, yet litigating robustly when necessary. Hausfeld's extensive experience with alternative and innovative fee models offers clients a diverse menu of engagement options and maximum flexibility in terms of managing their cost exposure.

Hausfeld is the only claimants' firm to be ranked by the Legal 500 as a top tier firm in private enforcement of antitrust/competition law in both the United States and the United Kingdom. For more information about the firm, including recent trial victories and landmark settlements, please visit: www.hausfeld.com.