

2017 Global Private Litigation Conference - Amsterdam

Related Lawyers: Scott Martin, Anna Morfey

Related Practice Areas: Competition Disputes

The conference will be held in Amsterdam, Netherlands, on May 7-8, 2017.

Scott Martin will Chair ABA Section of Antitrust Law's inaugural Global Private Litigation Conference and Anna Morfey will appear as a moderator of Panel II: Collective Actions Across the Globe. Featured programs will address topics including, among others, the private enforcement regimes in the "battleground" jurisdictions in Europe such as the UK, Germany, Finland, and the Netherlands, as well as the impact of Brexit; claims aggregation, claims assignment, and litigation funding techniques; pass-on and allocation; and structuring settlements in pursuit of "global peace."

For more information including access to the agenda and registration information, please visit here.