

Kimberly Fetsick

Kimberly is an associate in Hausfeld's New York office. Kimberly was drawn to Hausfeld because of its elite position as a litigation firm tackling complex legal issues around the world, and its longstanding commitment to the public good. Kimberly is working on several cases, including In re: Blue Cross Blue Shield Antitrust Litigation, In re: Arby's Data Breach Litigation, and In re: American Express Anti-Steering Rules Antitrust Litigation.

Following law school, Kimberly clerked for Chief Justice F. Michael Kruse of the High Court of American Samoa and Chief Judge Julie Manning of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Connecticut. Through her respective clerkships, Kimberly gained experience in trial and appellate civil and criminal cases and bankruptcy cases, working on a wide variety of legal issues.

While pursuing her LL.M. in London, Kimberly coached a team representing the Center for Transnational Legal Studies at the 23rd Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in Vienna. At Georgetown, Kimberly served as a student attorney at the DC Law Students in Court clinic, representing low-income tenants in Landlord & Tenant court seeking to enforce housing code compliance and fighting unjust evictions. As a member of the Georgetown Law Human Rights Institute, Kimberly co-authored a report on the toll statelessness in the Dominican Republic takes on children's access to education, which she presented at the First Global Forum on Statelessness at The Hague in September 2014.

In her free time, Kimberly enjoys traveling, playing soccer and lacrosse, and scuba diving whenever she is near an ocean.
