

Hausfeld Scoops Global Award at the WWL Awards Ceremony for Two Consecutive Years

Related Practice Areas: Competition Disputes

At the 2019 WWL Awards ceremony, held in London on 16 May, Hausfeld was awarded the Competition Plaintiffs Firm of the Year Award.

This follows from last year's award as Global Firm of the Year in the same category, with Michael Hausfeld singled out for an additional award as Competition Plaintiff Lawyer of the Year.

Who's Who Legal notes: "Following thousands of interviews conducted and nominations received, our research has decisively identified your firm as standing apart from all others in this practice area. The award is recognition of the exceptional calibre of your firm's work."

Congratulations to all our competition lawyers across 11 offices!
