

Bettina Scholze

Bettina is an associate at Hausfeld Berlin. She advises and represents clients in antitrust litigation. She is a graduate of Humboldt-Universität (Berlin) and Université Panthéon-Assas (Paris). She holds a Maîtrise en droit, with a focus on international law.

Prior to joining Hausfeld, Bettina worked as trainee lawyer in the litigation department of an international law firm in Berlin, the Federal Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and at the Administrative Court of Berlin.

She is fluent in German, French and English.

BERLIN

+49 30 322903001

bettina.scholze@hausfeld.com

PRACTICE AREAS

Competition Disputes

EDUCATION

Bar Exam / 2nd State Exam, Berlin

LL.B. / 1st State Exam, Humboldt-Universität, Berlin

Maîtrise en droit, Université Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas

Licence, Université Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas

BAR ADMISSIONS

Rechtsanwältin, Germany

IN THE NEWS

November 25, 2019

Hausfeld's Response to EC Consultation on Confidentiality