

ASSOCIATE

LONDON

+44 20 7665 5000

apredal@hausfeld.com

Alexandre Predal

Alexandre's practice has a particular focus on competition litigation.

Expertise

Alexandre joined Hausfeld's competition team in 2019 and has offered legal support to some of our most prominent cases ever since, assisting thousands of clients in their compensation claims following on from competition authorities' decisions. He is also active in our data and privacy practice, which focuses on bringing damages claims on behalf of consumers for data misuses and breaches.

During his time at Hausfeld, he has developed expertise litigating in France, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom.

Previously, Alexandre gained legal experience around investigations and white-collar crime at Jones Day in Paris. He commenced his career at Gide Loyrette Nouel, where he assisted the legal teams advising and representing public bodies before French administrative courts. He proceeded to working at the Directorate General for Competition, where he interned in the B-4 unit, specialised in merger control in the energy and environment sector.

Alexandre is fluent in both French and English and conversational in Russian and Spanish.

PRACTICE AREAS

Competition Litigation

During his time at Hausfeld, he has:

- Acted on behalf of thousands of hauliers seeking compensation in the Trucks cartel.
- Investigated several litigation claims, throughout Europe and particularly in France and the Netherlands.

EDUCATION

BA in History, Université Paris-IV

BA in Social Sciences, Sciences Po Paris

Academic Exchange, International Relations and Russian History, Saint-Petersburg State University

MA in Business Law, Sciences Po Paris Law School

Trainee Lawyer, Ecole de Formation du Barreau de Paris

BAR ADMISSIONS

Admitted to the Paris bar (France), 2019

PERSPECTIVES

January 7, 2020

Competition Litigation in the UK - 2019 in Review

October 3, 2019

Landmark Ruling Set To Shape Data Claims Landscape