

“At the top of its Game” - The Legal 500 (2018) Again Recognizes Hausfeld and its Lawyers as First Tier in Antitrust

Related Lawyers: Michael D. Hausfeld, Brian A. Ratner, Megan E. Jones, Reena A. Gambhir, Sathya S. Gosselin, Timothy S. Kearns, Melinda R. Coolidge

Related Practice Areas: Antitrust / Competition

For the ninth consecutive year, the Legal 500 has selected Hausfeld as a first tier firm in the United States in the category of Antitrust. The Legal 500 reports “Hausfeld, which is ‘at the top of its game’, houses a number of heavyweight practitioners... Recent highlights include acting as co-lead counsel to a proposed class of participants in the foreign exchange market in Re Foreign Exchange Benchmark Rates Antitrust Litigation; this matter has thus far resulted in the recovery of more than $2.3bn in settlements for US investors. The firm is also acting as co-lead counsel in Re Libor-based Financial Instruments Antitrust Litigation, where it is alleged that a number of the world’s largest banks conspired to manipulate the Libor rate.”

The publication recognized Hausfeld partners Michael Hausfeld, Brian Ratner, and Megan Jones as among their “Leading Lawyers.” Hausfeld partners Reena Gambhir and Melinda Coolidge were honored as “Next Generation Lawyers.” And Hausfeld partners Bonny Sweeney, Sathya Gosselin and Timothy Kearns were further recommended by the publication.