

Anthony Maton

London

(44) 20 7665 5000 main

(44) 20 7665 5001 fax

Brussels

0032 2 201 57 13 main

0032 2 201 75 31 fax

amaton@hausfeld.com

Commercial disputes are commercial problems that require commercial solutions – that is what we provide.

Anthony Maton, London Managing Partner at Hausfeld, has 25 years' experience of litigating claims in the United Kingdom and across the globe, and has been a law firm Partner for the last 16 of those. For the last 10 years Anthony has set up and then lead Hausfeld & Co LLP in London, where he has been at the centre of the development of Competition Damage Litigation in Europe, as well as establishing the firm as one of the go to litigation practises for actions against banks. Anthony is recognised in Chambers and Legal500 for competition litigation as well as other directories including Super Lawyers. He speaks regularly in London and abroad on Competition, Financial Services and funding issues and co-chairs two of the leading forums on Competition Litigation in Europe for GCR and the European Forum. Anthony has also been at the forefront of developing and using innovative funding methods for Clients that allow them to litigate should they choose on a no risk no cost basis. His Client base includes: Samsung, LG, PSA, Deutsche Bahn and Michelin.

Anthony has been involved in some of the largest competition claims brought in Europe including Air Cargo, Marine Hose, LIBOR, Carbon Graphite, Wax and many more. He was also the lead partner on the successfully resolved Car Glass cartel claims. Anthony is also a skilled negotiator with a renowned ability to formulate innovative settlement strategies - he has personally overseen settlements on behalf of over 100 claimants. Anthony is recognised as a leader in the field of competition litigation by Chambers and Partners 2014. He is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (having arbitrated under many rules including the LCIA, ICC and LME), an accredited Mediator and former Secretary of the London Solicitors Litigation Association.

Anthony's experience at Hausfeld includes acting for more than 50 oil companies from across the globe in respect of the marine hose cartel, including acting on the innovative Parker Settlement; for a group of over 30 European businesses against Shell, Exxon and other oil companies in the paraffin wax cartel; for a group of European rail national, including DB, NS & Trenitalia in the carbon cartel; acting against BA in the London arm of the global air cargo cartel litigation being run by Hausfeld for over 400 businesses; and acting in negotiating and designing the Air Passenger settlement against BA/Virgin.

Related News & Press

- In The News (41)
- Press Releases (31)
- Articles (10)
- Events (33)

- July 6, 2017

HAUSFELD TO PURSUE TRUCKS CARTEL CLAIM IN THE UK BACKED BY FINANCING FROM BURFORD CAPITAL

6 July 2017 – Today Hausfeld, a leading global law firm with a focus on competition disputes and other complex litigation, and Burford Capital, a leading global finance firm focused on law, announced a financing package that will support claimants represented by Hausfeld in pursuing damages claims in England arising from the 19 July 2016 European Commission Trucks Cartel decision.

- July 3, 2017

Hausfeld Clients Succeed with Complaints against Alphabet's Google before EC: € 2.4 BN Fine

3 July 2017: The European Commission has imposed on Google a record-breaking fine of € 2.42 billion ($ 2.75 billion) for abuse of dominance as a search engine by granting preferential treatment to its comparison-shopping service, Google Shopping. Hausfeld has been representing four formal complainants in the investigation, which has taken 7 years to conclude.

- June 7, 2017

Chambers & Partners, The Legal 500, and Global Competition Review Laud Hausfeld in Competition Law

Hausfeld has received top honors from Chambers & Partners, Legal 500 and Global Competition Review for its work across the U.S., Europe and elsewhere in Competition Law.

- March 21, 2017

European Commission Re-Adopts Air Cargo Decision and Imposes Fines of €776m

On 17 March 2017, the European Commission issued a press release stating that it has adopted a new infringement decision against 11 airlines in relation to the air cargo cartel. The new decision corrects the procedural anomaly that led to the original decision's annulment by the European General Court in December 2015 but otherwise retains the Commission's original findings in identical terms.

-

July 6, 2017

HAUSFELD TO PURSUE TRUCKS CARTEL CLAIM IN THE UK BACKED BY FINANCING FROM BURFORD CAPITAL

6 July 2017 – Today Hausfeld, a leading global law firm with a focus on competition disputes and other complex litigation, and Burford Capital, a leading global finance firm focused on law, announced a financing package that will support claimants represented by Hausfeld in pursuing damages claims in England arising from the 19 July 2016 European Commission Trucks Cartel decision.

- July 3, 2017

Hausfeld Clients Succeed with Complaints against Alphabet's Google before EC: € 2.4 BN Fine

3 July 2017: The European Commission has imposed on Google a record-breaking fine of € 2.42 billion ($ 2.75 billion) for abuse of dominance as a search engine by granting preferential treatment to its comparison-shopping service, Google Shopping. Hausfeld has been representing four formal complainants in the investigation, which has taken 7 years to conclude.

- June 7, 2017

Chambers & Partners, The Legal 500, and Global Competition Review Laud Hausfeld in Competition Law

Hausfeld has received top honors from Chambers & Partners, Legal 500 and Global Competition Review for its work across the U.S., Europe and elsewhere in Competition Law.

- March 21, 2017

European Commission Re-Adopts Air Cargo Decision and Imposes Fines of €776m

On 17 March 2017, the European Commission issued a press release stating that it has adopted a new infringement decision against 11 airlines in relation to the air cargo cartel. The new decision corrects the procedural anomaly that led to the original decision's annulment by the European General Court in December 2015 but otherwise retains the Commission's original findings in identical terms.

- August 26, 2016

Damages Claims arising out of the European Commission's Trucks Price Fixing Cartel Decision

The Trucks cartel will have affected a significant percentage of the 600,000 hauliers operating in Europe, as well as companies or corporate groups which retain their own fleets.

- November 12, 2015

As fines for FX manipulation total more than $10bn, Hausfeld prepares to litigate in London

Since November 2014, seven global banks have paid more than $10 billion (£6.4bn) to U.S. and European regulators to resolve allegations of collusion in the FX market.

- March 18, 2015

Hausfeld announces U.S. settlements worth $234.5 million in the FX antitrust litigation

The Foreign Exchange antitrust litigation alleges that UBS, along with many of the world's largest financial institutions, conspired to manipulate prices paid in the $5.3 trillion per day in Foreign Exchange market from 2003 to present.

- February 4, 2015

European Commission appeals the Belgian court's judgment on damages against Elevators manufacturers

In January 2015 the European Commission announced its intention to appeal a judgment of the Belgian Commercial Court which dismissed the Commission's claim for €6 million of damages against Otis, KONE, Schindler and ThyssenKrupp.

- March 23, 2017

Anthony Maton speaks at IBA's 13th Competition Mid-Year Conference in Seoul

Anthony Maton will speak at IBA's 13th Competition Mid-Year Conference in Seoul, South Korea on 15 June 2017.

- January 8, 2017

Anthony Maton speaks at ABA's Antitrust Law 2017 Spring Meeting in Washington, D.C.

Anthony Maton will speak at ABA's Antitrust Law 2017 Spring Meeting in Washington, D.C. on 28-31 March 2017.

- January 7, 2017

Anthony Maton speaks at GCR Live 2nd Annual Cartels in Washington, D.C.

Anthony Maton will speak at GCR 2nd Annual Cartels in Washington, D.C. on 28 March 2017.

- January 7, 2017

Anthony Maton speaks at BIICL's CLF Meeting: Competition Litigation and Collective Actions in London

Anthony Maton will speak at BIICL's CLF Meeting: Competition Litigation and Collective Actions in London on 1 March 2017.

Education

Law Society Finals, College of Law, Guildford – Pass

Common Professional Examination, College of Law, Guildford – Commended Pass

B.A. in Modern History, Exeter College, Oxford – First Class Honours and Fitzgerald Prize

Bar Admissions

Solicitor, England and Wales

Affiliations & Honors

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

London Solicitors Litigation Association.

Law Society

International Bar Association

American Bar Association

Competition Litigation Network

News & Press

'Barclays' LIBOR embarrassment - The Economist, 27 June 2012;

Wall Street Bank Investors In Dark on Libor Liability, Bloomberg, 5 July 2012;

Publications

Jurisdiction, Lexis PSL Competition, 15 April 2013;

Funding Litigation, Lexis PSL Competition, 07 May 2013;

2013 Q1 Report, Acquisition International Magazine - Acquisition International, 19 April 2013;

Guide to competition litigation for foreign companies, CorporateINTL - The Lawyer, 30 April 2013;

A.I. Global Media Ltd, Acquisition International, 3 May 2013;

Refresh, Biz Article, 24 June 2013;

The Private Competition Enforcement Review, LBResearch; and

Law Firm of the Year, Competition Law.

Awards

